

NEWS ALERT

Cortec® Receives ICE 2006 Award For Technical Excellence, and Educational Value

November 13, 2006

Cortec® Corporation was pleasantly surprised during the International Coatings Expo (Nov. 1-3, 2006, New Orleans, LA) with a wonderful award of excellence. Cortec® was chosen among 300 exhibitors to receive the "C. Homer Flynn Memorial Award" for technical excellence and educational value. The award was received by Anna M. Vignetti, COO/VCEO of Cortec® Corporation, and Angel Green, Coatings Chemist at Cortec® Corporation.

ICE 2006 was a huge success with over 4,600 suppliers and attendees that gathered together at New Orleans, LA. Each exhibitor's booth was visited by ICE officials and reviewed by certain criteria as candidate for the award.

Anna Vignetti, COO/VCEO Cortec® Corporation (center) & Angel Green (Coatings Chemist Cortec® Corporation (right) accepting the Technical Excellence award at ICE 2006 presented by ICE official.

Cortec® Corporation is a pioneer of environmentally friendly, corrosion protection Vapor phase Corrosion Inhibitors (VpCI™) & Migratory Corrosion Inhibitors (MCI®) technologies for the Packaging, Metalworking, Construction, Electronics, Water Treatment, Oil & Gas and other industries. Headquartered in St. Paul, Minnesota, Cortec® manufactures over 400 products distributed worldwide. ISO 9001 & ISO 14001:2004 Certified.

